A Sensational Elopement Exposed at Charlottesville.

THOUSAND DOLLARS FINE

C. & O. Railway Extends Time of Tenants—Randolph-Macon's Trustees Accepts Dr. Kern's Resignation as President and Adjourns—The Hoge Damage Case—Military Company Ready For Service.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., June 29.—A dispatch from Charlottesville to-day gives the details of a most sensational elopement. The dispatch says:

"Last Monday night a lady and gentleman arrived in this city from the South and registered at Hotel Glasgow as Francis Emory and wife. The next day they proceeded to a noted summer boarding house, in the western portion of the county, where they engaged quarters for a month. This morning the train brought another arrival, which proved to be the brother of the lady in question, he having learned that the party had purchased tickets for that point, and upon his arrival he examined the register at the above named hotel and found and recognized the handwriting.

He at once made application to Mayor McCue for a warrant for the apprehension of a man named Francis Emory Summer, who he said was a married man and had run away with his sister. This morning a couple of officers were sent with a carriage to this famous boarding house and returned about 12 o'clock with the lady and gentleman.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

"They were soon after arraigned before the Mayor, Mr. Dan Harrison representing the parties, and Mr. Frank Gilmer appearing for the Commonwealth. After considerable trouble in getting matters straight, Mr. Harrison stated to the court that his clients were not ready to proceed, and asked that the trial be postponed to enable them to get evidence, which he claimed would be satisfactory to all concerned.

"The Mayor said that he wished to give them the benefit of every circumstance, and the court and lawyers proceeded to determine what character of security could be furnished to secure the appearance of the parties. After bonds had been prepared, the prisoner asked for a conference with Mr. A. L. Ellerby, the brother of the young lady, which was granted, the result of which was that they agreed to go into a trial at once. The trial resulted in a fine of $500 to each of the parties.

VERY PRETTY.

"The woman appears to be about 30 years of age, a handsome brunette, tastefully and richly attired and would weigh about 100 pounds. She is a South Carolinian and is from Gaffney, and is connected with some of the prominent families of South Carolina.

"The man in the case is about 55 years of age, weighs 150 pounds, wears a gentlemanly bearing, has been married twice—his last wife still living. He is said to command unlimited amounts of money and had on his person a number of drafts on New York. He is a citizen of Asheville, N. C., where he is said to conduct a large mercantile business.

BIG FINE.

"At the conclusion the prisoner paid to the Chief of Police the amount of his fine, which, including costs, amounted to one thousand dollars and fifty cents. The party, consisting of the man, woman and her brother, ordered a carriage and immediately after the trial drove to the Midland Junction, where they boarded the 6:15 p. m. train over the Southern road for Washington, D. C. Chief of Police Parish, of this city, received a telegram this morning from the Chief of Police of Asheville, N. C., stating that Francis Emory Summer, arrested here yesterday afternoon, had a wife and children in that town."

EXTENSION OF TIME.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has notified several tenants of property which it recently purchased here for terminal purposes, that they may occupy the property until April 1, extending the period of occupancy from August 10.

It is not thought that there is any special significance in this, though none of the officials of the road in a position to discuss the matter, are in the city. General Manager Stevens and Second Vice-President Axtell are away.

It is not thought that any delay in the prosecution of the work of building the union depot and constructing the Chesapeake and Ohio viaduct will occur. The engineers have been at work for some marking the location of the piers and it is stated that this preliminary work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

No notices extending the time of the occupancy of tenants of property on the proposed site of the depot have been issued. Such have been served only on persons in possession of property on the route of the proposed viaduct. The work of constructing the latter will be very heavy, and will require many months. It is stated that no delay will be caused by allowing tenants to occupy the property until April.

It is intimated that an important conference is in progress in New York this week between officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Seaboard Air Line regarding depot plans. President John Skelton Williams of the Seaboard Air Line, is in New York, and Second Vice-President Axtell, of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Chief Engineer Seymour, of the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina, are also said to be there.

The plans for the depot have not been agreed upon, indeed, the architects have probably not submitted designs.

KERN'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

The trustees of Randolph-Macon College met at Centenary Church, Bishop

J. C. Granberry, president, in the chair. The following members were in attendance: The President of the Board, Dr. Paul Whitehead, J. J. Lafferty, J. P. Garland, W. G. Starr, Rev. J. S. Hutchins, J. C. Reed, J. T. Maslin, B. F. Lipscomb and Messrs. R. B. Davis, J. P. Branch, E. S. Conrad, P. V. D. Conway, A. S. Buford, G. B. Finch, G. L. Neville, W. W. Vicar, W. J. Kilby and R. Irby.

The President of the Board laid before the Board the resignation of Dr. J. A. Kern, president of Randolph-Macon College and professor of Moral Philosophy and the English Bible. On motion of J. P. Garland, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the resignation of Dr. J. A. Kern, D. D., president of Randolph-Macon College, be and the same is hereby accepted to take effect on the first of September next, or upon the election of his successor. That we hereby express our high appreciation of the services of Dr. Kern, both as president and professor, and our regret to part with him.

The following resolution was also adopted, That when this board adjourns, it adjourns to meet again at Centenary Church, Richmond, July 31st, at which time a professor and president shall be elected, and that a committee of five be appointed to take into consideration the whole matter of supplying the places made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Kern, and make such recommendations to the board as they may see fit to fill said vacancies.

The chair asked for time to make the appointments to fill the committee.

THE HOGE DAMAGE CASE.

A jury was secured this morning in the case of Dr. Thomas D. Hoge's executors against the Richmond Railway and Electric Company for $10,000 damages. The case was called up for trial yesterday, but an adjournment was taken by the court without being able to secure a jury from the regular venire. All the testimony produced was merely a repetition of what had been stated in the daily papers at the time when the accident occurred. The case will be on trial for several days.

READY FOR SERVICE.

Colonel Jo Lane Stern, the Assistant Inspector General, this morning submitted to the Adjutant General his report, recommending the mustering in of Company F, of the old First regiment. The report was accompanied by the verified muster-roll of the company, showing that so far sixty-six men had signed the necessary papers to become members of the company. Adjutant General Nalle will now likely order the company into the State service. This will be the first company to enter the volunteer force after the Spanish war.

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Patrick Castigan Commits Suicide by Drowning Himself.

Writ of Error in Wilson-Camp Case.

Daughters of the King—Bad Cooking Causes Sin—An Empty Jail—Proposed Military Organization.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., June 29.—Far away from dear ones and made morose and desperate because he couldn't talk in life, Patrick Castigan, an Irishman, 60 years old, preferred the quiet of death. If he had to keep still he'd rather die. Pat, yesterday threw himself into the dark waters of Bennett's Creek, near Gatesville, N. C. Last evening they found his body floating on the creek's still bosom. He was dead.

Pat, Castigan had no blood kin nearer than Ireland so far as is known. He moved to America about twenty years ago, since when he has lived nearly all the time in Gates county. Pat was a forist. He eked out a modest living looking after people's gardens and telling funny stories. He had traveled in many countries during his younger days and had by many a quaint selection of humor, interesting anecdote and bit of history. He could tell them well.

THEY WILL MISS PAT.

For years Pat, Castigan has been a well known figure in Gatesville. He was as familiar to court attendants as the Courthouse itself. Nearly everybody knew and liked Pat. He had no enemies.

SOLITUDE THAT KILLED.

As long as Pat, could get around him a crowd of admirers and make them laugh he was contented. He would likely have lived to a mellow old age, but for smallpox and its quarantined regulations.

They have some mild cases of smallpox at Gatesville. The premises on which Pat, lived, and which are owned by Mr. Joseph A. Brown, were quarantined. Pat, got very angry at having intercourse with his auditors cut off. He rebelled against any such regulations. That was in the first stages of the play that led to tragedy. He had to submit to the authorities. He became docile and listless as enforced quiet. The last stages were marked with melancholia. Old man Castigan went temporarily mad and

CURED BY CUTICURA.

The treatment is simple, direct, agreeable, and economical, and is adapted to the youngest infant as well as to adults of every age. Bath the affected parts with Hot Water and CUTICURA SOAP to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry without hard rubbing, and apply CUTICURA Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly take the CUTICURA RESOLVENT to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep, and points to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure when all other remedies and even the best physicians fail.

Sold everywhere. Price, The Jar, $1.25; Jar, CUTICURA SOAP, 25c.; Ointment, 50c.; RESOLVENT (half size), 50c.

sought refuge in death. He made for the nearest deep water.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Dr. George Williams conducted an inquest over the body. The jury found a verdict of suicide. The deceased left no property, but the good people of Gatesville—friends of Pat, who had laughed at his wit and his stories—had no idea of having him fill a pauper's lot. To-day they gave him a respectable burial. Many persons honored his memory.

WRIT OF ERROR GRANTED.

A writ of error was to-day granted by the Court of Appeals in the Wilson-Camp suit. Camp was the appellant. In a trial before Circuit Judge Hancock, sitting in Suffolk, Isaac T. Wilson got a verdict of $1,500 against W. N. Camp for breach of contract. Judge Rawles and Attorney Britt represented Wilson; Messrs. Prince & McEmore, Camp. Judge Rawles says he expects Wilson to get bigger damages at the next trial.

DAUGHTERS' ANNUAL SESSION.

The Daughters of the King met here to-day in St. Paul's P. E. Church. It was the second annual session of the order in the Diocese of Southern Virginia. There was a good-sized attendance of women delegates. The president, Mrs. J. T. McNair, of Norfolk, was in the chair, and Mrs. M. M. Urquhart, of Suffolk, acted as secretary. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C. E. Woodson, of St. Peter's, Norfolk.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Rector Joseph B. Dunn, of St. Paul's, made a very appropriate address of welcome. Rev. B. D. Tucker, of St. Paul's, Norfolk, responded.

The minutes of last meeting, held May 24, 1898, were read by Mrs. Meredith. The secretary, Miss Elizabeth Powell, was absent.

Reports from the president, treasurer and secretary were read. Reports from various chapters were read from Misses Timberlake, Townsend, Whitehead and Britt. Mrs. C. J. Jones, Mrs. Anderson and others. Mrs. Anderson, who lives at Lexington, said she hoped the assembly would be held in her town some time next century.

It was said that in some alms houses far away no services were ever held; no word of prayer was said over the dead.

SHORT ADDRESSES.

Brief addresses were made by Revs. B. D. Tucker and C. E. Woodson, of Norfolk.

A tender fraternal letter was read from Bishop Leighton Coleman, of Delaware.

It was decided to meet next year at St. Peter's, Brambleton, during the first week after Easter.

The following annual officers were named: Mrs. J. T. McNair, Norfolk, president; Mrs. A. S. Eley, Suffolk, vice-president; Mrs. Meredith, Norfolk, treasurer; Miss Anna Riddick, Suffolk, secretary. Mrs. McNair makes a good presiding officer. She is graceful and decided, and dispatches business promptly.

BAD COOKING CAUSES SIN.

The question-box was opened. In an informal discussion of queries Rev. Mr. Dunn said some good things.

In reply to an inquiry about suitable books for young girls to read Mr. Dunn mentioned "Development of Thirteenth." He said it was important to know how to cook. He claimed bad cooking is one cause of sin. It brings about bad digestion, bad temper, bad morals.

Under another topic Mr. Dunn said: "No man ought to ask a woman to marry him till she wants to marry him a whole lot."

After business was over the ladies served lunch in the chapel. The assembly, as a whole, was very pleasant.

GATESVILLE JAIL EMPTY.

Sheriff R. O. Riddick, the popular Sheriff of Gates county, N. C., was in Suffolk to-day. Sheriff Riddick says his people are getting good. The county jail at Gatesville has not an occupant, and there are no immediate prospects of one. There hasn't been a hanging in old Gates for many years.

APPROACHING ORGANIZATION.

There was another meeting to-night in Armory Hall of citizens interested in organizing here a military company. It was perhaps better attended than any yet held. Enough names were gotten to make the total between forty and fifty. The promoters expect to get the full quota after a few more meetings if they hold what they have and continue to get new names.

The committees were continued and other routine work done.

ITEMS.

Mrs. E. C. Eaton and daughter, Lillian, who had been guests of Dr. F. W. Skiles' family, left last evening for Boston, accompanied by Mrs. Edith Skiles. Mr. C. W. Lassiter, an employee of the Treasury Department, Washington, is spending a few days with his family in Suffolk.

Mr. Ben Buck has returned from a visit to Richmond.

Miss Mattie Lehman, of Henderson, N. C., is being entertained by Mrs. N. Lehman, on Clay street.

A strong wind storm, accompanied by very little rain, prevailed here this afternoon.

Readmaster J. Henry Nurney, of the Norfolk and Carolina, who was injured a few days ago from being run over by a lever car, does not improve rapidly. He is yet confined to his residence, at No. 22 Fifth street.

There was to have been a river party to-night, consisting of about a dozen young people. The evening weather caused a postponement.
